With over 16 years of experience editing dissertations, theses, and academic papers, I am a former academic librarian specializing in helping students refine their work with clarity, precision, and professionalism. I provide thorough editing and formatting tailored to various bibliographic styles, including APA, MLA, and Chicago, as well as UF- and ETD-specific guidelines, ensuring research meets the highest academic standards. I have worked with students from a wide range of programs and subject areas, including both qualitative and quantitative fields, and am able to polish and perfect your document for submission.
Areas of expertise include clinical and counseling psychology and social sciences.
